

A Report on NSS Annual Camp
7th February 2020 to 13th February 2020

Village Adopted: Rampura

Taluka: Anand

District : Anand

NSS Program Officer : Mr. Nandkishor Pimpalkar

Day -1

The college had organized NSS Annual Camp from 7th February to 13th February 2020 at Rampura. 25 NSS volunteers had participated and rendered their services in social activities. Inauguration of this camp was held on 7th February. The stakeholders Mr. Navin Patel and Dr. Paresh Mordhara, NSS Coordinator VJVM were our chief guests and Dr. Dipali Gandhi/c Principal was the President of Inauguration ceremony. This was followed by informal visit of the village.

Day – 2

NSS volunteers had interacted with the people. They conducted Rally on Health awareness. They organized cleanliness program in village and clean the road of village and aware people about importance of cleanliness. They interacted with School Principal and Teachers regarding students' performance. They carried out some outdoor games.

Day – 3

NSS Volunteers carried out survey of the village. They conducted Rally on Significance of Girls Education. & Blood Donation. They selected students for the cultural programme. They taught school children Mathematics, English and Science subjects. They also conducted Assembly session. They conducted survey to collect the data of blood donor. They presented Nukad Natak at center place of village on the theme 'Blood Donation'.

Day – 4

NSS volunteers carried out cleanliness drive at the village. They conducted Rally on Environmental Awareness. They also conducted teaching sessions. They prepared students for Cultural Programme. A session on Environmental Awareness was organized. The team of Vidyangar Nature Conservancy interacted with the school children. They also conducted assembly sessions. They conducted Blood donation camp with the coordination A D Gorwala blood bank and 30 unit blood collected by blood donor. NSS volunteers also took active participation in blood donation camp.

Day – 5

NSS volunteers conducted a workshop on Preparing paper bags from old news paper. They conducted a Rally on Swachatta. The workshop was for females. Nearly 25 female participated in the workshop. They also conducted classroom games and outdoor games such as khokho, Cricket, Badminton for school children. They also conducted assembly sessions.

Day – 6

NSS Volunteers conducted a workshop on Preparing Jewellery for female. Nearly 30 female participated in the workshop. They also conducted assembly and teaching sessions at school. They organized adhar camp & Post khata Camp. More than 200 peoples of villages took benefits of this camp.

Day – 7

Closing Ceremony of NSS was organized. Students of schools & NSS coordinator organized the cultural program. The guest was Mr. Navin Patel, stakeholder. I/c Principal Dr. Dipali Gandhi welcome and introduce the guest. Mr. Nandkishor Pimpalkar, NSS Programme officer presented a NSS Annual Camp Report. The Primary School Principal gave her feedback. NSS Volunteer Ms. Khusbu Patel shared her reflections about the NSS Annual Camp. Mr. Navin Patel addressed the audience. He focused on Significance of NSS and its activities and blessed NSS volunteers for their social activities. At the end Mr. Nelvin Joseph NSS volunteer proposed a vote of thanks followed by National Anthem.

All the faculty members, non-teaching and supportive staff of the college as well as Primary School Principal and staff, Rampura Sarpanch and Vice President and villagers everyone contributed in making this Camp a success.

Overall it was a good experience serving to the society.